

Present Perfect Continuous – Mixed

Make sentences using the present perfect continuous. Add the correct auxiliary verb:

1. we / study / harder than usual this term.

2. the kids / play / video games all morning.

3. I / not / sleep / very well recently.

4. who / you / talk / to for the past 20 minutes?

5. the teacher / explain / this subject for the past 3 hours.

6. Harry and Fred / jog / for the past 5 hours.

7. he / not / eat / junk food lately.

8. why / Natalie / cry / all afternoon?

9. I / drink / a lot more coffee recently.

10. what / he / do / all summer?

11. she / wash / her car for half an hour.

12. her parents / argue / since 10 o'clock this morning.

13. what programme / you / watch / all day?

14. the men / talk / for a few hours.

15. they / not / run / for long.

Answer Key

1. We have been studying harder than usual this term.
2. The kids have been playing video games all morning.
3. I haven't been sleeping very well recently.
4. Who have you been talking to for the past 20 minutes?
5. The teacher has been explaining this subject for the past 3 hours.
6. Harry and Fred have been jogging for the past 5 hours.
7. He hasn't been eating junk food lately.
8. Why has Natalie been crying all afternoon?
9. I have been drinking a lot more coffee recently.
10. What has he been doing all summer?
11. She has been washing her car for half an hour.
12. Her parents have been arguing since 10 o'clock this morning.
13. What programme have you been watching all day?
14. The men have been talking for a few hours.
15. They haven't been running for long.